A RUSSIAN ADMIRAL KILLED IN BATTLE

Several Russian Shigs Damaged
in the Last Engagement.

The Port Arthur Fleet Fared Badly
According to the Japanese—Russia Protest to Japan.

JAPS AFTER VLADIVOSTOK FLEET.

London, Aug. 13.—Admiral Togo, who is believed to have been killed in the battle of the Yellow Sea, is reported to have been killed in the battle of the Yellow Sea.

FIVE SHIPS DAMAGED.
Tokyo, Aug. 13.—Admiral Togo reports that he believes that five Russian battleships he engaged August 10 were seriously damaged.

THE JAPANESE.
Tokyo, Aug. 13.—Admiral Togo has reported as follows:

"On August 10 our combined fleet attacked the enemy's fleet near Tugan Rock. The Russian vessels were emerging from Port Arthur, trying to go south. We pursued the enemy to the eastward. Severe fighting lasted from 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, until sundown. Toward the close of the enemy's fire weakened remarkably, and then his ships scattered. The Russian cruisers Askold and Novik and several torpedo boat destroyers fled to the southward. Others of the enemy's fleet retreated separately toward Port Arthur. We pursued them, and it appears that we inflicted considerable damage.

"The Askold was sunk.
"The Novik was sunk.
"The Askold was sunk.
"The Novik was sunk.

ASKOLD BADLY DAMAGED.
Shanghai, Aug. 13.—The Russian protected cruiser Askold arrived at Wooning with her fifth funnel gone close to the deck, all the funnels shrouded with shell holes, one gun on the port side dismounted and several large shell holes above the water line.

One lieutenant and eleven men had been killed, and fifty men wounded.

HANDICAPPED BY GERMANS.
Chefoo, Aug. 13.—A late report from Tsing Tson says that the Russian warships still there are the battleship Askold, the protected cruiser Palada and Novik and three torpedo-boat destroyers. The Askold, which is badly damaged, is being repaired with German assistance. It is alleged.

A strong detachment of Japanese warships is reported to have sailed south for the purpose of intercepting the Vladivostok fleet, which, it is believed, has not yet effected a junction with the vessels reported to have been purchased by Russia from the Argentine Government.

RUSSIA FILES PROTEST.
St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—Russia has already formally protested to Japan, through France, against the action of the torpedo-boat destroyers in attacking the Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Ryesshitel at Chefoo and towing her away from that port, and that the protest has been communicated to the powers.

This prompt action is based upon the official report of the Russian Consul at Chefoo, which is very explicit on the subject of the dismantling of the Ryesshitel, saying that not only were the breech blocks of her guns and all her small arms removed, but her engines were rendered useless. The vessel, therefore, was reduced to the condition of a hulk. The Consul also reported that the Japanese fired upon the Russian sailors while they were in the water. It is stated here that both France and Germany are supporting at Peking the protest of the Russian Government against the action of the Japanese torpedo-boat destroyers in attacking the Russian torpedo-boat destroyer Ryesshitel in the harbor of Chefoo.

WILL MAKE ATONEMENT.
London, Aug. 13.—The general opinion of the London morning newspaper is that Japan will make atonement for the Ryesshitel affair by restoring the ship to the Chinese authorities, but at the same time it is admitted that international obligations have so frequently been thrust aside during the course of the war that Japan may possibly feel entitled to make a law unto herself.

TURKEY TO YIELD TO OUR DEMANDS

Her Counsellor at Paris Says We are Unreasonable.

President Roosevelt Decides to Make No Speeches in the Campaign—Philippine Day at Fair.

A BUFFALO JOCKEY KILLED.

Paris, Aug. 13.—Nabilmadi Bey, counsellor of the Turkey embassy in Paris, says the American demands are unreasonable, but that the Porte will yield.

RENEWED REQUEST.
London, Aug. 13.—Constantinople dispatch says that minister Leishman has renewed his request for an immediate settlement of the American demands. Either the demands will be granted, or the Minister will break off diplomatic relations.

WILL NOT SPEAK.
New York, Aug. 13.—President Roosevelt will make no speeches in the coming campaign. He has decided this after due deliberation. The general opinion is that it is unnecessary, his election is so certain.

RETIRED OFFICER DEAD.
New York, Aug. 13.—Brig. Gen. Gilbert S. Carpenter, retired, is dead.

JOCKEY FATAALLY HURT.
Buffalo, Aug. 13.—Jockey Bishsteiger, who was injured at the Fort Erie races, died this morning.

JUDGE TAFT SPEAKS.
St. Louis, Aug. 13.—Today is Philip pine Day. Secretary Taft made the principal speech, and there was a big crowd present. It was a very successful effort.

MOBIE RIOTING TODAY.
Chicago, Aug. 13.—There has been more rioting today. Meat wagon drivers were stoned. Another peace conference is being arranged.

A riot in crowded Fifth Avenue, within a square of the City Hall, and recalling the truncheon strike two years ago, when missiles were hurled from the windows of office buildings, capped the climax of disorder in the meat cutters' strike late yesterday. During the day half a dozen men were hurt in various encounters, and shots were fired during an attack on a trainload of "strike breakers."

All told, the violence was more widespread than in any previous twelve hours of the strike, although no mob of great size took part in any of the assaults.

BRYAN LOSES
SUIT FOR PART OF THE BEN-NETT ESTATE DECIDED AGAINST HIM.

New Haven, Conn., August 13.—A decision adverse to William J. Bryan in his contest over the will of the late P. S. Bennett, of New York and this city, was handed down late yesterday afternoon by the supreme court of Errors after an all day session. The decision virtually denies that Mr. Bryan is entitled to the $30,000 mentioned in the sealed letter written by Mr. Bennett and addressed to his widow to be read by her, after his death. By this letter the widow was asked to give $30,000 to Mr. Bryan and his family.

A decision sustains the opinion given by the supreme court in the case last spring, and also the decision of the probate court before which the matter was first brought up.

CARRIER PIGEON FALLS.
Richmond, Va., August 13.—A carrier pigeon fell exhausted here. Tied to a leg was this message: "Your sweetheart, Cleveland, O. To a girl I love. No. 231."

"The greatest interest is evidenced in the outcome of the naval battle, throwing light on which no further news has reached London.

TWO LARGE BATTLESHIPS.
London, Aug. 13.—According to the shipping Gazette, Japan has ordered two large battleships of twenty-three knots from Vickers, Maxim & Armstrong in addition to the battleship already building there.

Portland, August 13.—After a chase over two states, Riley Mantus was arrested at Gladwin, Mich. It is charged that he gave Abraham Croft, a farmer, "knockout drops," appropriated his clothing, robbed him of his money and dumped him in the snow.

ARMY MANEUVERS.
Athens, O., August 13.—Preparations have been completed for great army maneuvers. Brigadier General McMakin will command the first brigade.

FORCED TO HOLD SERVICES.
Vienna, August 13.—The authorities at Grodno, Poland, forced the Jews to hold services for the late M. Plehve in the synagogue there.

ROASTED IN JAIL.
Bristol, Tenn., August 13.—Oswell Young, set fire to the jail, his object to escape, but he was roasted to death.

AN AUTO RECORD.
Buffalo, August 13.—In an exhibition run on Kenilworth, Barney Oldfield covered a mile in 38.25 seconds in his green dragon.

FIRE IN ABERDEEN.
Aberdeen, Scotland, August 13.—Fire is raging in the tenement district, and the damage is already a million dollars.

NO WORD RECEIVED FROM BOOK TRUST

It is Not Known What it Will Do Here.

It May File an Injunction Suit, but
The Matter Is Not Yet Settled.

QUESTION INTERESTS MANY.

It is not known here what the American book trust intends to do regarding the decision of the local board of education to use the same books in the city schools, used last year.

The new school book law fixes an entirely different lot of books from those used last year, but they do not suit the local board. The American book company furnished most of the books used last year, as well as those to be used under the new contract, and what its position will be in consequence of the action of the Paducah school board, remains to be seen.

If it permits, without objection, the schools to use the same books used last year, it will furnish most of the books, and all of them at higher prices than under the new contract.

Under a new contract, however, it will furnish a much cheaper grade of books, so far as material is concerned.

A local book dealer said today that the trust made more money out of the cheap grade of books than it could out of the better grade, and for that reason might insist on furnishing the city schools books under the new state law, in which event it would have to file an injunction suit here enjoining the board from using the same books used last year.

As yet there has not been time to hear from the American book company and ascertain what it intends to do, but a great deal of interest has been aroused in the matter, as it is one that affects several thousand children in Paducah as well as their parents, who have to pay for the books.

The Madisonville Graphic is one of those papers that do not believe the new law is constitutional in all its provisions, and says:

"It may be that we are treading on dangerous ground, perhaps straying into fields that belong rather to the legal than the editorial profession, but be that as it may, we have our opinion in reference to the School Book Bill passed by the last legislature and its application to schools of cities of the first, second, third and fourth class, especially when these schools are known as graded schools. In this article we shall undertake to prove that the bill do not in any way apply to graded schools in any other section of the State.

"So far as we are able to see, there is nothing in the law making its provisions applicable to the school at Madisonville, or other towns similarly situated. It is in fact an amendment to the pre-existing common school law."

TENNESSEE-ALABAMA LEAGUE MEETING.

Huntsville, Ala., Aug. 13.—The directors of the Tennessee-Alabama baseball league met here and decided to bring the season to a close August 20. The schedule was changed to have the closing games in Chattanooga, Columbia and Sheffield.

Vicksburg and Greenville of the Cotton States League with 19 innings and Paducah and Vincennes with 18 innings can now go to the rear while Cairo and Henderson with their 20 innings can walk up and take the front seat. Up to last Tuesday evening the Champions as a whole had a batting average in the last 18 games of .412. This is unprecedented. Only two players failed to come up to the .300 mark while Shaanon leads with .687. Is it any wonder that the team is winning and proving to be a slaughter house for box artists. They continue still to "speak softly and carry a big stick."—Cairo Bulletin.

NOTHING FAMILIAR

To This Man Who Returns After Long Absence.

Inspector of Rural Route Was Here Last In 1877.

Mr. W. C. Ela, special agent for rural routes, is in the city inspecting the routes coming into Paducah. It is Mr. Ela's first visit to this city since 1877, and he naturally notes many changes.

"I would never have known it was the same place," he said to the Sun this morning, "and I have not yet succeeded in locating anything that looks familiar."

"One of my most vivid recollections is of some queer looking mule cars, running on two of the streets. The driver hitched his mule to the back end of the car, while he collected fares."

"Paducahans are certainly to be congratulated on the progress of their city since that time."

IN GOOD SHAPE

IS THE LOCAL I. O. BAGGAGE DEPARTMENT FOUND.

Mr. W. H. Williams, of Chicago, assistant chief baggage agent for the Illinois Central, passed through the city today en route to Louisville where he will next week oversee the baggage business, when the big Knights of Pythias conclave is held.

Mr. Williams makes several tours of the road annually straightening out the baggage business and often finds many amusing things. "North of the Ohio river everything is running smoothly," he said. "Occasionally we have trouble on the southern lines, however. We are asked to check everything from baskets of fruit, up, and in Mississippi have been threatened with all kinds of dire things for refusing to check as baggage chicken coops. One thing no road will carry as baggage is dynamite. Several weeks ago a quenseward drifter who had more nerve than common sense had the words 'Dynamite' printed on his trunks in large white letters so the porters would handle his trunks carefully. He overlooked the fact that the company wouldn't check it at all, and didn't get it checked until he had painted the lettering out."

Mr. Williams finds the Paducah baggage department as good and systematic as any on the system.

FROM FRANKFORT

PROMINENT OFFICIALS PASS THROUGH PADUCAH TODAY.

Secretary of State H. V. McChesney and his assistant Mr. Rld Reed, of Frankfort, arrived this morning from Louisville on their way to Smithland, Livingston county, on a brief visit to friends and relatives.

Smithland was their former home. Mr. McChesney for years being superintendent of the county schools.

THREE DOLLARS FOR ONE DOLLAR REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT.

Vast sums of money have been made by individuals who have bought land in places like Paducah by the acre and sold it by the lots. A concentration of small amounts by many individuals brings about the same result and proportion of profits. We are organizing a syndicate by which from $25.00 up may be invested, and the small interest makes as much in proportion as the largest interest.

A syndicate is being formed to buy 37 acres of land on the north side of the Hinkleville road, in the city limits, and within ten minutes walk of two car lines. The land is bought at $125 per acre and will sell readily in lots at $200 per acre. Only one-fourth cash is required so that a $25 investment means a $100 interest, a $125 investment a $500 interest and a $250 a $1,000 interest. We consider this investment absolutely safe and that it will pay a net profit of $3 for $1 invested within three years. It makes a fine opportunity for anyone to invest a small amount and yet get in on the ground floor of a genuine real estate bargain.

Full particulars on request. Whittemore Real Estate Agency. Fatenity Building. Both phones, 835.

TRAINMASTER RETURNS.

Trainmaster Henry Scheuing and wife have returned to the city after spending more than a week in Dawson. Mr. Scheuing made several tours of the road, looking after the improvements, but made Dawson his temporary headquarters, and is much benefited by his recreation. Mr. Scheuing expects business to pick up on the Louisville and Tennessee divisions of the I. O. within the next week or two, and is prepared to handle it all promptly.

"The Master Brew is the Beer for You"

DON'T BE TAKEN IN!

Most common beers cause biliousness, because they are not properly aged. Their brewers think they can't afford to use the time and space necessary to ripen their product.

BELVEDERE---THE MASTER BREW

Is properly aged—thoroughly fermented—free from every element of biliousness.

More than that, it is PURE—made from pure malt and hops—in the cleanest, neatest brewery under the shining sun. Belvedere, the master brew of Kentucky, is healthful because it is pure. It possesses that delicious, inimitable flavor because years of experience and the choicest materials in the world combine to make it perfect.

Drink it and be satisfied.

F. L. S.

GAY WEEK.

Society, dull for so long was quite gay the past week. A number of pleasant functions were given, all out of doors, and all ideal summer affairs. Leading among them were the dance at Wallace park by the Cotillion club, and a picnic party at Edgewood, by the Magazine club, in honor of Miss Anna Webb, of Washington and Miss B. E. Heed of St. Louis.

AL FRESCO PARTY.

The Magazine club entertained at Edgewood, Mr. Sanders Fowler's country home on the Broadway road Thursday evening in honor of Miss Anna Webb, of Washington and Miss B. E. Heed, of St. Louis, formerly presidents of the club. Supper was served on the lawn at 6 o'clock. A long table was decorated in baskets of nasturtiums, and tall vases of sun flowers and golden glows, making a veritable symphony in yellow. A glow was placed beside each plate.

Covers were laid for about fifty, the guests of honor occupying the ends of the table. The luncheon was in two dainty courses.

Japanese lanterns were lighted, as soon as it grew dark, and negro musicians added to the attractiveness of the entertainment.

Miss Webb, who is now in charge of a young ladies' school in Washington, was the club's first president and has always been pleasantly remembered for her efficient service and her inspiration. Mrs. Reed, who is now a resident of St. Louis, where her husband is rector of Grace church, having formerly served Grace church of this city, was president of the club previous to going to St. Louis, two years ago. She was a bright, capable and faithful leader and still has a warm place in the hearts of the club members.

The Delphic club and husbands of the members of both clubs were guests.

PADUCAHANS AT THE FAIR.

The following Paducahans were registered at the Kentucky building at the World's Fair the past week:

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had a glance at the last one, it is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks Mother's Friend is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers."

MOTHER'S FRIEND prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating treatment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. Mother's Friend takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

Sold by druggists for $1 a bottle.

PAINFUL MISHAP.
CIRCUIT CLERK H. H. HOBSON FELL FROM STEPS AND BROKE HIS THIGH.

Col. H. H. Hobson, the popular circuit clerk of this county, fell from the rear steps in the rear of his home on Madison near Eleventh street yesterday afternoon and broke his right thigh at the hip.

The colonel was mounting the steps, which are quite steep and have no railing, and thinking he had reached the top, without looking he reached over to the side to brace himself against the door casing. Instead he fell from the steps, with the above result. Dr. P. H. Stewart was called and attended the injured man, who will be laid up possibly for several weeks. About ten years ago Colonel Hobson had the same leg broken while fox hunting over in Missouri.

THE STATE FAIR

Last Year's Graft Will Not be Repeated This Year.

There Were Legal Complications Which Could Not Be Settled.

Kentucky will have no State Fair this year. The decision has been reached by the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association on account of the refusal of State Auditor S. W. Hager to issue the warrant for the $15,000 auxiliary fund appropriated by the Legislature in 1902 for the maintenance of the State Fair. Mr. Hager refused to issue the warrant on the advice of Attorney General N. B. Hays, who held it unconstitutional in a similar opinion to that returned in the case of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

The Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association will institute a friendly suit against Auditor Hager, seeking to establish the constitutionality of the appropriation. It was paid in 1903 without question, and a movement to repeal it was defeated in the Legislature of this year after a hard and long-contingent fight. The opponents of the appropriation succeeded in the House during the last rush of business, recommending that the State Auditor refuse to honor the requisition of the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders' Association for the auxiliary fund.

It is expected to hold the Fair next year.

OFFICE CHANGED

THE YARD TELEGRAPH OFFICE NOW AT THE WEIGHING HOUSE.

An official bulletin announcing the transfer of the yard telegraph office from the old dispatchers' offices to the weighing house in the south yards, was posted today in local Illinois Central trainmen quarters.

The wires were changed this morning but the transfers are not effective until tomorrow at 12:01 o'clock. The day operator will be Mr. R. N. May, and the night operator J. J. Painter. All south bound train will register at the weigher's office hereafter, and also incoming south bound trains. This arrangement will be of more convenience to the south end men.

CHILDREN DIE.

Clayton, the nine-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, of 1720 Tennessee street, died yesterday afternoon of summer complaint. The burial took place today at Mt. Pleasant cemetery in the county.

The four-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bass, 1019 South Fifth street, died of summer complaint yesterday afternoon. The burial took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Oak Grove cemetery.

BETTER THAN SPANKING.

Spanking does not cure children of vice but teaches them to be afraid of their parents. It is a constitutional cause for this. Mrs. M. Summers, Box of Notre Dame, Ind., will send her home treatment to any mother. She asks no money. Write her today if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child. The chances are it can't help it.

TO BEAUTIFY YOUR COMPLEXION IN 10 DAYS USE SATINOLA THE UNEQUALLED BEAUTIFIER

A FEW applications will remove tan or sallowness and restore the beauty of youth. SATINOLA is a new discovery, guaranteed, and money will be refunded if it fails to remove freckles, pimples, liver spots, blackheads, discolorations and eruptions. Ordinary cases in 10 days, the worst in 20 days. After these defects are removed the skin will be soft, clear and beautiful. Price 50 cents at drug stores or by mail. Thousands of ladies testify to the merits of Satinola.

Mrs. R. A. Foster writes: Nashville, Tenn., January 2, 1904. National Toilet Co., Paris, Tenn. Gentlemen: I have used your SATINOLA and MYRTIAN CREAM ever since they have been on the market and unhesitatingly say that they are the best preparations for removing discolorations and improving the complexion that I have ever known. I regard your NADINE FACE POWDER as superior to any on the market.

HERBINE

Restores the bile more fluid and thus helps the blood to flow; it affords prompt relief from biliousness, indigestion, sick and nervous headaches, and the over-indulgence in food and drink. Herbine acts quickly, a dose after meals will bring the patient into a good condition in a few days.

G. L. Caldwell Apt. M. K. and T. R. R. Chocotah, Ind., Ter., writes, April 1, 1903: "I was sick for over two years with enlargement of the liver and spleen. The doctors did me no good, and I had given up all hope of being cured, when my druggist advised me to use Herbine. It has made me sound and well." 50c. DuBois, Kolb & Co.

FRIENDS OF THE MASSES.

One of the greatest fallacies of the Democratic party for the last eight years has been the apparent aim of its leaders to convince the voters of the country that it is the real and only friends of what Mr. Bryan designated as the "common people." In its last two campaigns the Democratic party through its platform, orators and newspapers has sought to create the impression that this nation is divided into classes, and that the Republican party represents the wealthy class while the Democratic stands for "oppressed plain people." In addition to being demagogic, such teachings are positively dangerous, or would be if so much reliance could not be placed on the hard, common sense and intelligence of the American voter. But the "reorganized" Democracy, claiming its restoration to sanity and soundness, has included the appeal to class prejudice in its platform plank which declares that "We favor a revision and a gradual reduction of the tariff by the friends of the masses for the common weal."

The only intelligent interpretation of this declaration, granting the honesty of the party making it, is that the Democratic party believes that we no longer have a free Republic, built on the corner stone guaranteeing the political equality of all American citizens, but that we have a government of classes, the aristocrats and the plebeians. Such a declaration, by a great party organization, is unjust, un-American and a betrayal of American political faith.

Aside, however, from the inappropriateness of the declaration, the assertion that the Democrats propose to reduce the tariff, for the benefit of the masses, will appeal to intelligent voters more as a threat than a promise. Business men, manufacturers, farmers, tradesmen, laborers, all the "classes" cannot well forget the fact that the Democratic party reduced the tariff a few years ago, when the Republican administration was dismissed and Democratic guidance accepted in the midst of an era of general prosperity. The memory of that change is stamped in the minds of the masses who were robbed of prosperity and forced to accept adversity.
It requires a high grade of political courage to ask them to repeat the experiment.

The Irish-Americans are rapidly coming over to the Republican party.
The Globe-Democrat, says:

The Boston Globe's abandonment of the Democracy will be made the text of many discussions on the connection of the Irish with American politics. Until about a score of years ago a large majority of the Irish-American voters were probably Democrats. There has been a movement of the Irish over to the Republicans, however, in recent years, and it is probably stronger just now than it ever was in any previous presidential campaign. T. St. John Garney remarks that "a great deal of the prejudice which has been directed against the Irish in the past has been the result of their identification with Democratic municipal politics." He mentions the association of his race with Tammany, and says it is more evenly divided at present than ever before, and declares that this is good for the Irish as well as for the Republican party.

The city of Paducah now has so many law suits on its hands and so much legal business to look after that it has had to employ an extra attorney at extra expense. This is no reflection on the regularly elected city solicitor, but the fault if the officials responsible for the litigation. There is enough work for one lawyer to do without getting the city into every kind of law suits possible. Every dollar spent for extra legal services is another dollar taken from the pockets of the tax payers.

A farmer's club in Livingston county has figured up that the country spends about $100,000 a year on roads, counting in the value of the labor required of the 1200 voters subject to road duty.
Yet they have abominable roads.

The sooner the farmers realize that good, substantial roads means a saving in taxes, in addition to more satisfactory service on the roads, the better for the tax payers of a county.

There ought to be some way to get at those careless mail agents on trains, who carry by the Louisville papers every few days. Thus far, however, it goes on with commendable regularity without any sign of remorse or abatement.

President Cleveland says that the outcome of the St. Louis convention was due to Providence. The general impression is that it was due to a Western Union telegram.

Delegates to a convention may be fooled in making a platform and naming candidates, but no party has ever yet succeeded in fooling the voters at the ballot box.

President Roosevelt has not found it necessary to explain any difference of opinion between himself and his party as expressed in the platform declarations.

The American voter can read the Republican tariff plank without the aid of an interpreter.

Democracy's chances might be better if there was a four year limit on memory.

YOUTHFUL TRAMP

Bowling Green Boy "Hobo"
His Way to the Fair.He Was Well Treated—Had Very Little Trouble, and Was "Living Easy."Cleveland French is the name of a 12-year-old hobo who was taken into custody this morning by Patrol Driver, John Austin.

The boy lives at Bowling Green, he says, and his father is a blacksmith.
About a month ago the youth decided he would visit the World's Fair in St.
Louis, and with his savings, amounting to $2, started out. He boarded a passenger train and went as far as his money would take him, roughing it on freights the remainder of the way.

He remained in St. Louis three weeks, staying with an uncle and left for home day before yesterday, arriving in Paducah this morning. Young French stated he was stored away in a box car by a friendly brakeman and has been treated nicely on his trip.

The boy is unusually bright and says he had a good time. He will go home and was released from custody shortly after arrest. He got his board by begging on the way.

AFTER ALLEGED THIEF

Captain Joe Woods left this morning on the Dixie Fowler for Cairo after Charles Rhodes, a white man of Mechanicburg, who is charged with stealing diamond and pearl earrings belonging to Margaret Wood, the colored chambermaid on the Fowler.
Rhodes is alleged to have gone to Cairo August 8th and stolen the earrings from the stateroom while no one was about. Rhodes was arrested at Cairo for alleged robbery and the earrings were found on him.

SIXTEEN OFFICIALS
ARE TO BE ELECTEDHalf the General Council Goes
Out in December.Little Interest Manifested Thus Far—
A New Question Sprung Over Sidewalk Contracts.

The November election will be of more importance in Paducah than many suppose, as half the general council is to be elected then.

Under the second class charter half the council and half the aldermen serve one year and the other half two years, making half the board of new members every year.

In November six councilmen are to be chosen to succeed the following:
Councilmen, Ed Hennan, Al Hymanish,
J. S. Jackson, Charles Smalley, Jas. Mc-Carthy and L. D. Watson.

The retiring aldermen are—Aldermen
Charles Reed, Gus Singleton, Henry Trine, and A. W. Greff.

The retiring school trustees are—Robertson, First ward; May, Second ward; Herndon, Third ward; Greff, Fourth ward; McFadden, Fifth ward; Renfrow, Sixth ward. McFadden has resigned and his successor will hold for the next two years.

The Democratic city committee has taken no steps thus far to make the necessary nominations, and the general opinion seems to be that no primary will be held, as it would cost the candidates too much.

A lot of property owners along the streets and sidewalks reconstructed under the Terrell contract are again indignant. They have never been pleased with the quality of work, and now they find that they are asked to pay 19 1/2 cents a square foot for concrete sidewalks, no matter for how much less they are able to get the work done.

Contractor Terrell claims that under the contract let to him by the city the property owners may put down either brick or concrete for sidewalks. He has nothing to do with the brick, but if they have concrete walks laid, he claims he is entitled to the contract, and is entitled under his contract with the city, to get 19 1/2 cents for it.

Some of the property owners claim they can get the work done for several cents a foot cheaper, but Mr. Terrell says they have no right to do it, and if they do do it, he will sue to collect his profits. His attorneys claim that his point is well made, and it seems to be.

The principal indignation seems to be directed against the general council for allowing a contract like that to go through. No property owner wants to pay 19 cents a foot if he can get the same work done for 14 or 16 cents, yet that is what he will have to do by virtue of the business methods of the general council, according to the contention of the contractor and his attorney.

The contractor would probably have taken steps to prevent anyone having brick sidewalks, had his attorney construed the charter as the Board of Works does. There is a provision of the charter which provides for a "uniform system" of street improvements, but no one seems able to determine what it means.

The Board of Public Works of Paducah construed it to mean that when a contract for street improvement or reconstruction is let, it must require similar material used by all property owners, and is generally admitted that it should mean that, and that contracts should be prevented allowing one man to put down the clean, attractive, substantial concrete, and another put down soft, unsightly brick, as was done along some of our principal streets, under this Terrell contract.

Contractor Terrell's attorneys do not think that is the proper construction of the law, however, and do not believe that such a construction could be sustained in the courts, hence Mr. Terrell will not make a fight to force property owners to put down concrete, as he might do.

His attorneys today confirmed the report that he would bring suit for profits against all property owners allowing others to do the concrete sidewalk work.

Chairman W. M. Reed, of the park committee, stated today that a meeting of the committee would be held Monday morning. About all the park sites have been inspected and the committee Monday will probably formulate a report of some description to the general council.

Contractor Charles Robertson will today finish his contract on West Jefferson street, from indications this morning. He expected to finish Wednesday, but was unable to do so. This houlever is one of the handsomest in the city, and will, as soon as opened up, prove to be one of the most popular.

The street roller is temporarily out of commission, undergoing light repairs, but will be all right again in a day or two. The Board of Works claims it is being good service everywhere it is used.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock a meeting of the street committee and the Board of Public Works will be held to take up the matter of double tracking broadway. It has been decided to improve the thoroughfare, but the question of double tracking has never yet been passed on.

"Oh," said the little boy, "I'm afraid

"Why wouldn't he?" growled the farmer.

"Because," said the little boy, "he always taught me to look out for him-

"Where is your father?" asked the farmer.

VERY TRYING TO WOMEN

Are the Peculiar Ills Brought on by Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs.

(Per-na is a Tonic Especially Adapted to Their Peculiar Diseases.)

Miss Alice Dressler
Miss Jessie Westland
Miss Mamie Groth
Mrs. Ida L. Gregory
Miss Louise Westbrook
Miss Florence Murphy

Catarrh is a very frequent cause of that class of diseases popularly known as female weakness. Catarrh of the pelvic organs produces such a variety of disagreeable and irritating symptoms that many people—in fact, the majority of people—have no idea that they are caused by catarrh.

A great proportion of women have some catarrhal weakness which has been called by the various doctors who have consulted by as many different names. These women have been treated and have taken medicines, with no relief, simply because the remedies are not adapted to catarrh. It is through a mistaken notion as to the real nature of the diseases that these medicines have been recommended to them.

If all the women who are suffering with any form of female weakness would write to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio, and give him a complete description of their symptoms and the peculiarities of their troubles, he will immediately reply, with complete directions for treatment, free of charge.

"Health and Beauty," a book written especially for women, sent free by Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Alice Dressler, of No. 1313 North Bryant Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., writes as follows concerning Per-na:

"I was suffering from catarrh of the throat and head. One of my college friends, who was visiting me, asked me to try Per-na and I did so and found it all and more than I had expected. It not only cured me of the catarrh, but restored me to perfect health."—Alice Dressler.

Miss Mamie Groth, Plattville, Wis., writes:

"I have for several years suffered with frequent backache and would for several days have splitting headaches. Several of my friends advised me to take Per-na and I asked my physician what he thought of it. He recommended it and so I took it and am entirely without pain of any kind now."—Mamie Groth.

In a recent letter from No. 2 Grant Ave., Denver, Col., Mrs. Ida L. Gregory writes:

"Some six years ago my husband suffered with nervous prostration, and advising with a friendly druggist he brought home a bottle of Per-na. His health was restored from its use, his appetite was increased and restful sleep came to him."—Ida L. Gregory.

Miss Florence Murphy, No. 208 Second Ave., Seattle, Wash., writes:

"I suffered for over a year with female trouble, and although I tried several physicians none of them seemed to be able to help me permanently. It only took a little over three bottles of Per-na to make me well and strong. I never have backache, headache or bearing down pains any more."—Florence Murphy.

Mrs. Louise Westbrook, No. 9 East Columbia St., Detroit, Mich., Secretary of the West Side Lotus Club, writes:

"For several years I suffered with leucorrhoea and painful menstruation, which was followed by general debility, until I was but a wreck of myself. Thanks to Per-na I am a well woman to-day."—Louise Westbrook.

Miss Jessie Westland, No. 767 Dearborn Ave., Detroit, Mich., District Deputy of Detroit Independent Order of Good Templars, writes as follows:

"Per-na has been a blessing to me and gladly do I endorse it. For two years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach. I lost flesh and grew thin and emaciated, nervous and exhausted, so that I could neither work or enjoy life. I began taking Per-na and can now eat and enjoy everything I eat. I have been well over a year now."—Miss Jessie Westland.

Deputy of Detroit Independent Order of Good Templars, writes as follows:

SMALL POX CASE

SON OF REV. J. L. PERRYMAN ILL FROM THE DISEASE.

Dr. Sory has reported to Health Officer Graves a case of smallpox discovered on Bronson avenue yesterday, and the place will be quarantined until the patient has recovered and all danger of a spread has passed.

Dr. Sory was called to the residence of Rev. J. L. Perryman yesterday to visit Mr. Louis Perryman, a son, who had symptoms of smallpox. Dr. Sory decided to wait until he was certain, and this morning his suspicions were confirmed and the case was reported to the health officer.

This is the first case of smallpox reported in the city in several weeks, the last patient being discharged from the pest house more than a month ago. There is no likelihood of a spread.

BROOKPORT'S NEW FREIGHT DEPOT.

Through the untiring effort of Agent Dorst for improvement at the depot in the way of more room, the company has placed a box car at the southwest corner and adjoining the depot to be used as a freight room. This is a much needed improvement as the freight room, the waiting room, and in fact, the whole depot is too small to handle the trade of this place.

Theatrical Notes

The park theater continues to draw large crowds every night, and will doubtless continue to all next week, when a new company arrives.
Billy Kersanda's colored minstrels were at Cairo night before last, and are working west. Kersanda has been coming to Paducah for a good many years but will not be here this season unless it is late in the spring.
Mr. O. W. Manley, of Chicago, representing the Dixie Amusement company, is at Hotel Lagomarsino to confer with Woodmen of the World relative to their carnival.
Miss Blanche Buckner, formerly of Paducah, who has been with the "Isle of Spices" during its long and successful Boston engagement, goes with the company next week to New York, where it enters a long run.

NO INDICTMENT

GRAND JURY AT WICKLIFFE FAILS TO INDICT KOTHEIMER.

A long distance telephone message from Wickliffe this afternoon stated that the grand jury had returned the minute of the examining court in the case against Engineer Phil Kothelmer, of Paducah, marked "Ignored" and instead, indicted the negro brakeman for breaking into the car and stealing a box of oranges. Engineer Kothelmer always said that the negro broke into the car and when he got off and saw the Illinois Central special agent watching him, took the oranges and dropped them over in the engineer's yard.

THE THURMAN DIVORCE SUIT SETTLED OUT OF COURT.

Bristol, Aug. 13.—The divorce suit of Mrs. Olivia Thurman against Gen. Chas. Thurman was settled out of court. She is to get a divorce and seven thousand dollars alimony. She charged that he forced her into a madhouse to get rid of her. She convinced the authorities of her sanity and was released.

Major J. H. Ashcraft leaves this evening on the Tennessee for Shiloh, where he meets the commission, General Bates and others, to locate the Tennessee monuments and decide on the date of their dedication. This will probably be fixed for some time during October.

OLD FASHIONED

BUT STILL IN THE FASHION.

It is an ever new and interesting story to hear how one can be entirely made over by change of food.
"For two years I was troubled with what my physician said was the old fashioned dyspepsia.
"There was nothing I could eat but 20 or 30 minutes later I would be spitting my food up in quantities until I would be very faint and weak. This went on from day to day until I was terribly wasted away and without any prospects of being helped.
"One day I was advised by an old lady to try Grape-Nuts and cream, leaving off all fatty food. I had no confidence that Grape-Nuts would do all she said for me as I had tried so many things without any help. But it was so simple I thought I would give it a trial, she insisted so.
"Well I ate some for breakfast and pretty soon the lady called to see her 'patient' as she called me and asked if I had tried her advice.
"Glad you did child, do you feel some better?
"No," I said, "I do not know as I do, the only difference I can see is I have no sour stomach and come to think of it I haven't spit up your four teaspoons of Grape-Nuts yet."
"Nor did I ever have any trouble with Grape-Nuts then or any other time for this food always stays down and my stomach digests it perfectly; I soon got strong and well again and bless that old lady every time I see her.
"Once an invalid of 98 pounds I now weigh 125 pounds and feel strong and well and it is due entirely and only to having found the proper food in Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Paducah's Line Up Today Shows Several New Players.

A Series With Clarksville; Began This Afternoon—Fast Games are Anticipated.

OTHER NEW PLAYERS COMING.

The Paducah and Clarksville baseball teams arrived this morning and this afternoon are playing at Wallace Park. These are games transferred to Paducah because of the lack of patronage at Clarksville, and will be the first here in some time.
The lineup of the Indians today will show some changes. Lally, who is a first baseman, will play first and Harley will go to the outfield. Bateman will play third base and Gerard to the bench for today. Bonno or Bralio will pitch and Barlow, Harley and McGill will play the field.
Taylor, the big 200 pound fielder and pitcher, is with the team and is said to be mighty fast. He has been playing good ball for the team.
McGill got three hits yesterday, the first in 12 games. One was a home run, the second a two bagger and the third a single, all out of three times up. His hitting eye is returning.
Bonno, the pitcher, Bateman the third baseman and Lally, the short stop, are here, Bonno having arrived last night and the two latter this morning.

Bonno is a pitcher of reputation, having played with larger league teams. He has of late been playing independent ball, however. Lally and Bateman have been with the Cochocton, O., independent team, which recently disbanded when the Sydney, O., team went to pieces.
Bateman was with the Indians at the beginning of the season, but jumped his contract. Lally is said to be a good hitter and also is Bonno.
O'Brien and Sawyer, infielder and pitcher of the Tri-State league, are expected today. Sawyer was with New Decatur, Ala., last season and pitched here. He did not make much of an impression with the fans.
The Paducah management has loaned Bobby Barlow to the Hopkinsville team, but he can be recalled at any time.
It was stated this afternoon that both Shortstop Pelpho and Centerfielder Barlow had been loaned to Hopkinsville, but declined to go, and that they would this evening try to get their release.
HEALTHY MOTHERS.
Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boschee's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At Dr. Boels, Kolb & Co.

Mr. Evan Prosser, of the B. & O., is in the city on business.
Miss Eva Dixon went to Metropolis today to visit her sister.
Attorney William Merble went to Princeton today.
Mr. W. H. Hummel went to Louisville today.
Mrs. William Kraus went to Marion, Ill., today.
Mrs. J. D. Wilson and daughter, Miss Christie, passed through the city this morning en route home to Louisville after attending the fair.
Attorney Frank Lucas went to Owensboro today.
Mr. J. T. Spalding, formerly of this city, is here for a few days. His family is in Henderson.
Miss Mary Lou Byrd will go to Louisville tomorrow for a week's visit to relatives.

"All for'd," commanded the big man. Wilbur drew himself up, angry in an instant. "Look here," he began, "what's the meaning of this business? I know I've been dragged and unshowered. I demand to be put ashore. Do you understand that?"

"Angel child," whimpered the big man. "Oh, you live of the valley, you bright an' mornin' star! I'm really pained, y' know, that your vally can't come along, but we'll have your plans set up in the laundrette. It gives me genuine grief, it do, to see you bel'n' obliged to put your little white feet on this here vulgar an' dirty dock. We'll have the Wilton carpet down by to-morrow, so we will, my dear. You'll be an' they'll be out as his rage boiled over. "All for'd," I've heard. I'm captain of this here bathin, an' that's all you need to know for a good while to come. I ain't generally got to tell that to a man but once, but I'll stretch the point just for love of you, angel child. Now, then, move!"

Wilbur stood motionless, puzzled beyond expression. No experience he had ever been through helped in this situation.

"Look here," he began, "I—"

The captain knocked him down with a blow of one enormous fist upon the mouth, and while he was yet stretched upon the deck kicked him savagely in the stomach. Then he allowed him to rise, caught him by the neck and the slack of his overcoat and ran him forward to where a hatchway not two feet across opened in the deck. Without ado he flung him down into the darkness below, and while Wilbur, dizzy by the fall, sat on the floor at the foot of the vertical companion ladder, gazing about him with dazed eyes, there rushed down upon his head first a wooden coat, then a sou'wester, a pair of old skin breeches, wooden socks and a plug of tobacco. Above him, down the contracted square of the hatch, came the bellowing of the captain's voice:

"There's you'll out, Mister Lise of the Valley, which the name our dear friend Jim makes a present of and no rings, because he loves you so. You're allowed two minutes to change, but it is to be hoped as how you won't force me to come for to assist."

A trapdoor fell away beneath Wilbur's feet.

It would have been interesting to have followed, step by step, the mental process that now took place in Wilbur's brain. The captain had given him two minutes in which to change. The time was short enough, but even at that Wilbur changed more than his clothes during the two minutes he was left to himself in the rocking dark of the schooner's fore-cabin. It was more than a change—it was a revolution.

What he made up his mind to do, precisely what mental attitude he decided to adopt, just what new niche he elected wherein to set his feet, it is difficult to say. Only by results could the change be guessed at. He went down the forward hatch at the toe of Kitchell's boot—silk hosiery, necktie overcoat, patent boots and gloves in his hands. Two minutes later there emerged upon the deck a figure in old skin and a sou'wester. There was blood upon the face of him and the grime of an unclean ship upon his bare hands. It was Wilbur, and yet not Wilbur. In two minutes he had been, in a way, born again. The only traces of his former self were the patent leather boots, still persistent in their gloss and shine, that showed with grim incongruity below the vast compass of the old skin breeches.

As Wilbur came on deck he saw the crew of the schooner hurrying forward, six of them, Chinamen every one, in brown jeans and black felt hats. On the quarter deck stood the captain barking his orders.

"Consider the Lise of the Valley," bellowed the latter as his eye fell upon Wilbur the transformed. "Clap on to that starboard windlass brake, sonny!"

Wilbur saw the Chinamen ringing themselves about what he guessed was the windlass in the schooner's bow. He followed and took his place among them, grasping one of the bars.

"Break down!" came the next order. Wilbur and the Chinamen obeyed, bearing up and down upon the bars till the slack of the anchor chain came home and stretched taut and dripping from the hawse holes.

"Vast heavin!"

And then as Wilbur released the brake and turned about for the next order he cast his glance out upon the bay, and there, not 150 yards away, her spotless sails tense, her cordage humming, her tumescence banks slipping easily through the waves, the water hissing and churning under her forefoot, clean, gleaming, dainty and aristocratic, the tideway's yacht Petrel passed like a thing of life. Wilbur saw not tideway himself at the wheel. Girls in smart gowns and young fellows in white ducks and yachting caps—all friends of his—crowded the decks. A little orchestra of mandolins were tuning off a quick-step.

The popping of a cork and a gate of talk and laughter came to his ears. Wilbur stared at the picture, his face devoid of expression. The Petrel came on, drew nearer, was not a hundred feet away from the schooner's stern. A strong swimmer, such as Wilbur, could cover the distance in a few strokes. Two minutes ago Wilbur might have—

"Set your meln!" came the bellow of Captain Kitchell. "Clap on to your throat and peak halyard!"

The Chinamen hurried aft.

Wilbur followed.

CHAPTER II.

IN the course of the next few moments, while the little vessel was being got under way and while the tideway's Petrel gleamed off into the blue distance, Wilbur made certain observations.

The name of the boat on which he found himself was the Hertha Miller. She was a two-topmast, twenty-eight ton keel schooner, forty feet long, carrying a large spread of sail—mainsail, foresail, jib, flying jib, two gaff topsails and a staysail. She was very dirty and smelted abundantly of some kind of rancid oil. Her crew were Chinamen, there was no mate but a cook, himself a Chinaman, who appeared from time to time at the door of the galley, a potato masher in his hand, seemed to have some sort of authority over the hands. He acted in a manner as go-between for the captain and the crew, sometimes interpreting the former's orders and occasionally giving one of his own.

The Owner of The Beatrice

(Original)

In the Newport Casino two ladies, mother and daughter, were lounging, making remarks about those sitting near or passing.

"Oh, heavens, Beatrice," said the mother, "there's Walter Wells! If he sees us it will spoil everything. Just think of his telling people that we came from a Mississippi river town!"

"The daughter bit her lip. "How unfortunate!" she said.

"And just as we have been taken up by the R's. Here he comes. We mustn't see him on any account."

The mother turned her head squarely on the man who was approaching; the daughter, after hesitating, suddenly became interested in a group which called her gaze to another part of the room. The man walked by, his eyes fixed on the two women. He had strided forward with an expectant look on his face, which turned into a bitterly disappointed, then a severe, one. Instead of going up to them, as he had at first plainly intended, he passed on.

"Oh, mother," said the girl. "I wonder if he saw us."

"Saw us? Of course he did and knew we didn't want to be bothered with him. I wonder what he is doing here. He was as poor as a church mouse when we left it, ten years ago."

That night there was a ball at R's, and Mrs. and Miss De Lano—it was De Lano originally, now it was De Lano—were there. They knew a few of those they met there, but as they had not yet effected an entrance into the cream de la creme of the world's commercial aristocracy, scarcely any of those they called acquaintances paid any attention to them.

"Mamma," said the daughter, "what can it mean? There's Walter Wells."

"You don't say so. Where?"

"Over there—why, that's the man who was pointed out to me this afternoon as Lord Donegan, the Irish nobleman, who has been over here shooting."

Half an hour later the daughter was standing near Lord Donegan, and, seeing that she was a beautiful girl, he asked to be presented to her. During their conversation Lord Donegan spoke of hunting in the west and incidentally mentioned his friend Walter Wells.

The lady led him to talk of his friend without mentioning her former acquaintance with him.

"I was in Colorado," he said, "starting for the Yellowstone park when I met Wells. I took a fancy to him and succeeded in persuading him to go with me. We were on a stagecoach one day when the driver was drunk, dropped the reins, and the horses dashed down a steep road. Wells went out on the tongue and checked the horses just as they were about to bring us around a curve and over a precipice. It wouldn't have made much difference if Donegan with a bare five thousand a year had gone over, but the owner of the Beatrice mine would have been a very different thing."

"The Beatrice?"

"Yes; named for a sweetheart, I fancy, though Wells never gave me his confidence."

"Is the mine valuable?"

"Produces a couple of hundred thousand a year, and Wells owned it all till he sold it recently for $10,000,000, I think."

The lady turned her head aside, and the lord went on.

"Wells came back with me, and when some of my New York friends were good enough to ask me to Newport I told them I couldn't come without Wells. They didn't seem to think he'd have a pleasant visit here—Newport is exclusive, you know—but when the ladies found he was a bachelor and worth $10,000,000 they kindly accepted my introduction, and he became quite the rage."

"Since you are so intimate with Mr. Wells," said Miss De Lano, "perhaps you will hear a message from me to him."

"With pleasure."

"Tell him that Miss—Miss De Lano, a friend of his, is here and would be pleased to see him."

Lord Donegan went off to find Mr. Wells.

"I say, old man," he said, "there's a Miss De Lano here—a beauty—an old friend of yours, who wants to meet you."

"What did you tell her about me?"

"Willy, I told her all about you of course."

"Tell Beatrice De Lano that I passed her this evening, and so great has been the change in me during the past two years that she failed to recognize me. I have been so shocked at my nerved appearance that I haven't the heart to meet her."

"Beatrice?" repeated Donegan, looking at his friend searchingly.

"Yes, I named the mine for her. I came east expecting to find a sweetheart. I found a stone."

Lord Donegan did not carry the message, and Miss De Lano knew that he had no message that would be acceptable. That night after her return home she threw herself on a sofa despairingly.

"Why, my dear," said her mother, "what's the matter? Are you ill?"

"Matter? Matter enough! Walter Wells is worth $10,000,000 and has the entire to this Newport 'smart' set that we have been trying so hard to get into, and we cut him out."

Wells and Lord Donegan left Newport the next day for New York, where the former sailed for home. Wells went west and, totally unconscious of the value of the entire he had made into the charmed circle, never took the trouble to visit the place again. Nor did the girl he came east to find ever see or hear from him.

Do you want good rich red blood? Do you want the bloom to come back to the cheek? Are you convalescing after having fever, pneumonia or measles? Then you ought to take a bottle of EMULSO-HYPO. Its medicinal food that reaches every tissue in the body and builds you up. Taken in a little wine its as pleasant as cough syrup.

Read what the editor of the Meridian Star of Mississippi, A. G. Davis, writes under date of April 8:

"My mother took the Emulso-Hypo and has been greatly benefited. She is in better health than she has been in years."

J. W. Russell, county clerk of Hickman county, Tenn., writes:

"My wife has used several bottles of Emulso-Hypo with Iron and has been wonderfully improved. I can conscientiously recommend it for all lung trouble."

Rev. G. T. Sullivan, presiding elder of the Memphis district, writes under date of Dec. 1, 1903:

"My daughter, whose system was very much run down, has been taking your Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, and has improved so much with one bottle I have no doubt by continuance she will be fully restored in her nerve forces. I am delighted with the results and shall continue her on it. Wishing you prosperity, I am, yours truly,

G. T. SULLIVAN.

AN AFFLICTED SON KILLS HIS FATHER

Wealthy Shelby County Man Slain by Lunatic.

Bullet County Fued Case Ends Fatally—Owensboro Gets a New Bank.

OTHER STATE HAPPENINGS.

Shelbyville, Ky., Aug. 13.—Lucien Wells, aged 25, son of one of the wealthiest and most esteemed men of Shelby County, last night shot and instantly killed his old father and then blew out his own brains.

The young man had always been subject to fits, but was regarded as a harmless lunatic, and his father had resisted against the idea of sending him to an asylum, contending that he could best care for him.

Last night while the family were seated on the lawn, young Wells suddenly raised from his chair and began firing.

SMALLPox APPEARS. Hopkinsville, Ky., Aug. 13.—Five well developed cases of smallpox have appeared at Casky, in this county. One white man—Charles Brown—is affected, the others negroes. The health authorities are taking every precaution to prevent a spread of the disease.

ATE NEEDLES. Glasgow, Ky., Aug. 13.—Mattie Brown, daughter of the Rev. J. L. Brown, of Temple Hill, this county, is expected to die from having swallowed several needles and pins.

VICTIM DIES. Louisville, Ky., Aug. 13.—Francis J. Haggin, shot by John R. T. Harboure, is dead. Harboure is in jail awaiting the orders of the Bullitt county officials.

A NEW BANK. Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 13.—Articles incorporating the State Bank of Kentucky, with a capital stock of $15,000, were filed in the County Clerk's office. R. G. Hill is president and the Hon. J. William Day, Representative of Owensboro, in the Legislature, cashier.

BAPTISTS MEET. Central City, Ky., Aug. 13.—The largest attended Baptist Association of Muhlenberg county has been in session for two days at Brown. The Rev. R. T. Brunner, of Owensboro, is moderator; the Rev. J. J. Clear, of Owensboro, delivered the annual sermon. C. E. Eades, of Evansville; C. W. Wells, of Owensboro, are clerks of the association.

TELEPHONE FOR LIVINGSTON. Smithland, Ky., Aug. 13.—Citizens of Salem and vicinity will soon have a local telephone exchange, a local stock company is to be formed which will be owned by mineral men and the citizens of Salem. The People's Independent Telephone Co. participating to the extent of furnishing the local exchange toll lines to outside points. In the town 23 telephones have already been subscribed for and within a six mile radius of Salem the country people have taken as many.

DEEDS. Gips Husbands, as master commissioner; deeds to H. J. Johnson, for $10 and other consideration, property in the county.

SAUNDERS A. FOWLER, Local Observer.

The Pavonia went into Tennessee river this morning.

The Henry Harley is off the ways. The Dick Fowler cleared on time this morning for Cairo.

The Charleston is due tomorrow from Tennessee river.

The Tennessee will leave at 6 o'clock this evening for Tennessee river.

The Royal arrived and departed on time today for Golconda.

The Dndley is due from Clarksville and on arrival will lay up, the water being at too low a stage to permit safety in running.

The Duffey has arrived from Mississippi river and will go out about Monday to Tennessee river after tie.

The Dnnhar is today's Evansville packet.

The Richardson arrived last night at 11 o'clock from Evansville. She runs slow on account of the extreme low stage of the water.

The funeral of the late Mr. Charles A. Stockham, of Nashville, former steamboat inspector, takes place tomorrow from East Nashville. The following have been asked to act as pall bearers, one being from Paducah: Capt. J. R. Handley, Capt. George Green, Isaac T. Rhea, W. M. Shook, John W. Chester, W. H. Holland, Capt. McDaniel, Capt. James Koger.

POLICE COURT

ONLY A FEW CASES ADORNED TODAY'S DOCKET.

The Charles Cherry breach of the peace case consumed a large portion of the court's time this morning, resulting in a fine of $1 and costs with the fine suspended.

Willis Baker, wanted as a witness in the case against Geo. Winfrey and others, colored, for stealing a watch, forfeited his recognizance and a warrant was issued for him.

Chas. Boyd and Chas. Clark, colored, were given 30 days in city prison for stealing money from the coat of a motorman on a street car.

The breach of the peace case against Frank Hughes was continued.

A cow and seven pigs caught roaming the streets were sentenced to be sold Monday.

Snake Wade, colored, was arrested by Officers Hessian and Hixley this morning for being drunk and disorderly. Mr. E. N. Staton was handling debris from the Relkopf buggy shop which recently burned, and Wade half drunk insisted on unloading the stuff as fast as Staton could load it. He was fined $3 and costs.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE.

Workmen are engaged in constructing lines and putting in instruments for a telephone system in Cayce and Moscow, in Hickman county. Nearly one hundred telephones will be taken in and between these towns and a central at both places put in. It will connect with the Cumberland lines in Fulton and Hickman.
